

PASTOR WALTER AND BLANCHE WAHL CLERGY DEVELOPMENT FUND

A component fund of the

Blanche & Walter Wahl

BACKGROUND

Throughout their 35-year ministry, the Bible served as the foundation and guide for what Walt and Blanche Wahl taught and lived in their daily lives. As parents, they exercised togetherness as a family. Daily devotions, with prayer and Bible reading, were a must with their six children at the nightly family dinner table. Games of all kinds stimulated competition and intellectual activity. Conservative caution was exercised with all activities outside of the family circle and when a child ventured into areas not approved by Mom and Dad, “tough love” was practiced. This nurturing proved to be successful as Walt and Blanche lived to see all six children happy in their adult lives – true to the Christian principles that guided them in their youth.

Blanche passed away on September 17, 2001. Walter passed away on July 15, 2006, after thirty-five years of ministry in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, where they served parishes in Watson, Minnesota, Badger, Iowa, Red Oak Grove, Minnesota, Preston, Minnesota, and Columbia Heights, Minnesota. Walt was the official clergyman, but Blanche was a true apostle and also served their congregations as secretary, choir director, Sunday School teacher, and cheerleader for Christian living and wholesomeness.
