BACKGROUND

Russell was born on November 18, 1964 in Wausau, Wisconsin. He was a lifetime resident of the Town of Easton who graduated from the D.C. Everest School District. After a long and courageous battle with cancer, that ended on March 12, 2002, he is survived by his wife, Jennifer, his father, Jack, two sisters, Barb (Russell) Lambrecht and Sue (John) Christensen, a brother, Tony (Rainie), a nephew, Jack, and four nieces, Jacklyn, Kaylee, Hanna, and Karley. His mother, Beverly, preceded him in death.

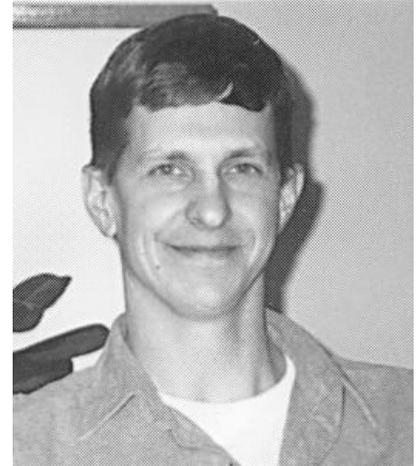

During his lifetime Russell's family was most important to him. He married his wife, Jenny, on June 30, 2001 at St. Florian's Catholic Church in Hatley. Although their time together was short, he was comforted and encouraged through his illness by her love and support.

Russ was a papermaker at Weyerhaeuser for eight years, and served as vice president of the Papermaker's Union. He was active in the Easton-Hewitt-Wausau Lions Club, having served as president and treasurer of the Club, and as an Eye Bank transporter for many years. He was also active in the Wisconsin Valley Fair and the Market Animal Sale Committee where he served as the weigh-in chairman. He was a former 4-H Club leader and president, as well as a former vice president and president of the FFA. During high school he was a member of the wrestling team and orchestra, and was named to the Who's Who in High School student's listing.

Russell was an avid outdoor enthusiast. He enjoyed being in the woods, snowmobiling, four-wheeling, camping, hunting, and fishing, and has several trophy mounts to his credit.

All who knew and loved Russell Sliwicki during his short life will greatly miss him and his quick wit. He was a gentle and loving family man, a thoughtful community leader, and a kind and caring friend. This scholarship fund was established to keep his spirit and passion alive in our community for present and future generations.

To honor Russ's memory, and the qualities of his life that defined him, the Russell Sliwicki Memorial Scholarship Fund was established within the Community Foundation of North Central Wisconsin shortly after his death. Initial memorial gifts were received from family, friends, neighbors, and colleagues, along with the Easton-Hewitt-Wausau Lions Club. The fund will now award scholarships annually in his name to graduating seniors of D.C. Everest Senior High School who wish to pursue a career in an environmental or agriculturally related field.
