Katherine H. Anderson was born November 6, 1922, in Amery, Wisconsin, the daughter of Harry and Hazel (Vaughn) Anderson. She graduated from Osceola High School in 1940 and went on to the River Falls State College (now UW-River Falls) where she earned her teaching degree. After teaching in Cornell and Fort Atkinson, she went on to teach at Horace Mann Junior High (now Middle) School in Wausau in 1949; retiring in 1985. Kay loved to travel and was active in Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sons of Norway, and delivered Mobile Meals as long as she was able.

Katherine passed away on January 5, 2008, at Sylvan Crossings in Wausau at the age of 85. She will be remembered as a great lady with an infectious smile – a lady with class – a jewel to her students, who touched many lives. Her family and friends remember her as lighting up many lives and always remembering her students, even those she had 50 years ago.

Katherine is survived by her sister, Margaret (Gordon) Scharnhorst, and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents (Harry and Hazel), and a sister.

Fund Established through Katherine's estate plans, following her death in 2008.
