

John & Elizabeth Bradley created the Bradley Foundation Fund to benefit graduates of Antigo Senior High School, from which their eight children graduated.

John Bradley was a World War II veteran and graduate of the Wisconsin Institute of Mortuary Science (now Milwaukee Area Technical College). He owned and operated the Bradley Funeral Home in Antigo, was a member of several fraternal and veterans organizations, and served on the board of directors of the Community Health Foundation.

Elizabeth (Betty) Bradley was a graduate of Lawrence University and had a brief career as a social worker before becoming a full-time homemaker. She volunteered for several local nonprofit organizations and helped found LeRoy Hospice at Aspirus Langlade Hospital. In 1992, she received the Antigo Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year Award.

Fund Established within the Community Foundation in 1990.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The recipients will be announced by a Bradley family member at the high school senior awards ceremonies in the spring.

PAYMENT OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

The recipient will receive a congratulatory letter from the Community Foundation, after the awards ceremony, instructing them on how to receive their scholarship funding. The student must provide proof of registration to the Community Foundation office each semester in order for payment to be initiated. Payment will be paid directly to the college or university the student is attending.

This scholarship is to be applied to expenses for tuition, room and board, books, and fees each year, up to four years, that the student is registered for classes at an accredited college or university.

CONTINUATION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is renewable for undergraduate studies and is payable for up to four years. Student must remain in good academic standing. An annual update to the Bradley family is required, and can be sent with proof of enrollment and a transcript of grades annually through the Community Foundation.
